Deep Snow for April—Pension Agent at Knoxville—Found Dead—Help the Orphan—The Immortal Mullins—Does the Court Understand Herself—Killed—Gone Back to First Principles—"Gone Up"—A Train Breaks Through a Trestlework—I. O. O. F.—"Heap of Fun in Tennessee"—Fell Dead—The Election for Chancellor in the Seventh District—Trestlework Destroyed.

From the Banner and the Union and American of Tuesday.]

Trestlework Destroyed.

About five hundred feet of the trestlework, between Clarksville and Big Sandy, on the Louisville, Clarksville and Memphis Railroad, was washed away Sunday morning. On this account travel on that road will be suspended for about a week.

Deep Snow for April.

The snow is said to have been a foot deep last Monday on the White Top mountain, at the northeast corner of Tennessee, where it still towers and glistens like an iceberg.

Pension Agent at Knoxville.

In the Senate yesterday Dr. D. F. Boynton, Brownlow's son-in-law, was nominated for Pension Agent at Knoxville. No wonder the sadly afflicted Senator from Tennessee objected to the confirmation of Mr. Ricks.

Found Dead.

On last Sunday, says the Clarksville Chronicle, a negro named Prince Linch was found dead in the horse lot of Mr. James Norfleet, near Woodlawn. He had been to town the day before, and started home very drunk and lost his reckoning. He fell from the fence, which is very high and broke his neck some time during Saturday night. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Help the Orphan.

The intelligent and patriotic people of Wilson county have arranged for a grand tournament at Lebanon, on 22d May for the benefit of the Confederate Orphan Asylum at Clarksville. In addition to the tournament prizes will be awarded to the best equestrienne—for the worst turnout—and to the winner of the velocipede race. The object is most worthy, and the people of Tennessee and adjoining States are invited to attend.

The Immortal Mullins.

James Mullins was yesterday nominated by President Grant for Collector of Revenue in the Fourth District of Tennessee. We are authorized to say he won't decline the place unless something better is immediately offered him.

Does the Court Understand Herself?

The Bolivar Bulletin learns that a move will be made at the next term of the Hardeman Quarterly Court to restrain magistrates from kissing brides when performing the marriage ceremony. Will the magisterial dignity of Davidson, too, tolerate such an encroachment upon established rights? Not "if the court understands herself, and she think she do." Fiat justitia ruat cœlum!

Killed.

We learn from the Brownsville Bee that a man named Thomas Coburn shot and killed a negro by the name of Frank Holmes, about a mile from Stanton's Depot, on Wednesday last.

Gone Back to First Principles.

Our old friend Don Cameron, one of the oldest newspaper men in the State, has gone back to his old position as one of the editors and proprietors of the West Tennessee Whig. It augurs a return of happiness and prosperity peculiar to the olden and golden time, to see this veteran of the press-gang in the harness.

"Gone Up."

KNOXVILLE, April 19.—A slight financial embarrassment stands in the way of one of President Grant's appointments in this portion of Brownlow's moral vineyard. The redoubtable Maj.-Gen. Joseph A. Cooper, late commander-in-chief of Brownlow's militia, and more recently recipient of the collectorship of this district, having failed to procure a single name in this city on his bond of a hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, left to-day for Nashville.

A Train Breaks Through a Trestle Work

On Sunday morning about 10 o'clock a locomotive and nine loaded cars broke through the trestle work just northwest of the Chattanooga depot, used by the Sewanee Coal Company for delivering coal into the yard. The trestle was from ten to fifteen feet high, and was rotten and insecure. Two cars capsized; the others fell upright in statu quo, and with the coupling unbroken. Strange as it may seem, of the four men on the train only one, the engineer, Michael Quinn, was injured, and he but slightly. The fall of the trestle made a tremendous crash, and alarmed the whole neighborhood. The engine is considerably damaged and the trucks of the other cars ruined. The loss will be considerable.

I. O. O. F.

The following escort will accompany Mr. E D. Farnsworth, Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of the United States, I. O. O. F., to Philadelphia, to morrow morning, to attend the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America, to be given at that place on the 26th instant, under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of the United States. Past Grand Representative T. C. Smiley and Past Grand Patriarch J. L. Weakley, of Nashville; Grand Patriarch O. H. P. Sehon, of Murfreesboro; Past Deputy Grand Master John Johnson, of Memphis; and Past Grands J. M. Thatcher, Samuel Knight and Harry Buttorf, of Nashville, and other representatives from Chattanooga and Knoxville.

"Heap of Fun in Tennessee."

Catherine Shuck was sent to the workhouse for twenty days, by the Commissioner of Police yesterday, for drunkenness and making night hideous with hysterical and repeated shrieks of "there's a heap of fun in Tennessee."

Fell Dead.

Mrs. Eliza Bigger, an estimable old lady living on Paradise Hill Turnpike, near the Cheatham county line, started to visit a neighbor on the morning of the 14th inst., and was found dead in the road a short time afterward.

The Election for Chancellor in the Seventh District.

It is seemingly difficult to obtain accurate information as to the result of the recent triangular election in the Seventh District for Chancellor. From present indications Mr. Charles G. Smith appears be in the lead, and we understand that Mr. Lauck concedes the election to Smith. The Hon. James M. Quarles, in a letter to the editor of the Paris Intelligencer announces that as the result. The Clarksville Chronicle says the returns indicate the election of Mr. Smith by a large majority—a result unexpected by some of the warmest friends of that gentlemen.

In Montgomery county Smith has a majority of 459, with District Fourteen and Sixteen yet to hear from, which will probably swell the total to 500.

In Robertson county Smith's majority, so far as heard from, is 153, two precincts being a unit for him.

In Stewart county Smith's majority, so far is 110, with a strong probability that he will carry the county by 400 majority.

INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON

No Extra Session to be Called—President Grant Anxious that the Senate should Adjourn—Is Desirous of Testing the Tenure-of-office Act—The Bondholders Averse to War—Cuba and Recognition—The Alabama Claims—The Policy Determined Upon—The Negro Cry Worn Out—The Fenians and Canada—An Admonition—Appointments to Office—Judge Bond to Get Nothing—Rumors of Trouble.

From the Baltimore Gazette]

WASHINGTON, April 18.—I have it from undoubted authority that a dispatch from this city to a Northern newspaper to the effect that the President contemplates an immediate called session of Congress is without the slightest foundation. He is even anxious for an immediate adjournment of the Senate. Many of the appointments which he desires to make upon personal grounds are threatened with rejection, and he is now desirous to test what virtue there really is in the modified tenure of office act.

The tocsin of alarm sounded by the sentinels upon the watch tower of this Metropolis has reached the ears, and drawn the attention of "the bloated bondholders." Our foreign relations all round are in a critical condition. It is felt that the credit of the nation cannot stand another four years' war, even if mainly of a naval character. Yet, it would seem that the nation's creditors are powerless to prevent a collision upon a gigantic scale. It appears to be settled that the Administration will not yet recognize Cuban independence openly, nor will Mr. Motley be instructed to recommence negotiations at once in respect to the "Alabama claims", so-called. The plan determined upon is by a systematic system of annoyances to provoke the Governments of England and Spain to demand reparation, and thereby place the United States in the attitude of defense. For this purpose our neutral obligations to those powers will be practically ignored, filibustering expeditions secretly encouraged, while every attempt to prevent their success will be tortured by the Radical press into so many insults to our flag and country, and serve to exasperate the people up to the proper pitch for further and regularly authorized aggressions. It is in vain that the creditors of the Government remonstrate. The negro question and the hatred to the poor Southern people have been worn threadbare as elements of Radical power. We have heard a great deal about "military necessity"—there is now a civil necessity" to keep the restive portion of the Radical rank and file in line. Nothing short of a tub to the whale such as is thus improvised is considered adequate to the emergency.

Such an extraordinary state of the country could alone have so suddenly elevated George Francis Train to the position of a really important and widely influential man, which he evidently is at this moment. The condition of the English controversy has revived the operations of Fenians, who now have a reasonable opportunity of a permanently successful raid upon the "New Dominion." It seems that this programme is not of yesterday's contrivance, but has been foreseen or projected by Eastern politicians long ago. The machinations in this regard converted Train to Radicalism, and to them exclusively is to be attributed the Democratic defeat in Connecticut the present month, as might be conclusively shown if cumulative proof were necessary.

Such is the strait to which Radical leaders are driven for recruits to preserve their majority of numbers; and I must confess that there is danger of its temporary success. The people of this country as yet can be swayed only by the glare of big public enterprises, and gigantic private speculations! The men, however, who by either fair or foul means have acquired large means in any kind of property had better take a sober look at the prospect before them! A single turn of the die might convert prosperity into very ashes.

Some of Grant's appointments have been shelved or withdrawn, and a few rejected. Three seccessionists have recently received prominent positions—Longstreet, Martin and Crowe—through Senatorial confirmations. It is thought Atkinson, of your State, will yet come up (right side) somewhere. This is the only balk observable in the Maryland programme. Bond will get nothing.

The new appointees were thrown into spasms yesterday by a report that the President threatened resignation. It is known that Colfax would not leave a man in office whom Grant has appointed. By the way, a furious quarrel has sprung up between the Vice President and his man Friday—Defrees. It is admitted that the latter was the chief instrument in the nomination of Colfax at Chicago; yet not a finger was lifted to prevent his ignominious dismissal from his very lucrative office. I have it from good authority that the Vice President refused to recommend Defress to Grant upon the ground that a "good understanding" did not exist between the first and second officers of this great country.

A NEW PARTY.

The Views of Senator Sprague

From a long account of an interview with Senator Sprague, of Rhode Island, which appears in the New York Herald, we make the following extract:

"People say, Governor, that they do not comprehend exactly what you are driving at. Some insinuate that you are bidding for the Presidency; others that you want to cut loose from your party, and still more state, in downright terms, that you are crazy."

"Hold on!" exclaimed the Governor; "let me answer the last charge. Yes, I am crazy—crazy, as every reformer has been since the beginning of the world. Because I refuse to follow in the ruts of that set calling itself the Senate of the United States, the cry is raised at once, 'Oh! Sprague is crazy.' I will let them know before long exactly how crazy I am. I am not bidding for the Presidency, either. If it were offered to me to-morrow, I should only take it on condition of being at liberty to kick out of the White House every office seeker that dare come into it. Not a man should be appointed under me to office because he was this man's friend or that man's supporter. I would have an incorruptible board of examiners for every office under the Government, and no man should be appointed unless he showed the proper capacity to fill it. I would disregard party altogether, and put only the best men in the nation in places of trust; but as I know such a condition of things can never be attained, the Presidency is not my ambition. Neither am I about to cut loose from my party and attach myself to the Democratic. Both as parties are rotten, but I intend to build up a new party, in which politics will have little to do. My party will have for its one grand principle the reform of our finances, the rendering of money cheap, the reduction of taxation, the elevation of the working classes, the protection of labor, the improvement of our cotton, agricultural, commercial and manufacturing interests—in short, the making of this country really great, strong and prosperous. All your talk about the nigger, nigger suffrage, State rights, women's rights, rebels, and so forth, is only fit for those old grannies in Congress. Where is our shipping at this moment? Who of those men pestering our ears all the time about reconstruction, rebels, niggers, and so forth, has ever lifted his voice in favor of the broken down commerce that was once our pride and glory? I tell you, sir, these men would drive this country headlong to the devil in their greed for power. This country to-day is intrinsically weaker than any on the face of the globe, not excepting Mexico. Now, let me explain; but first let me enlighten you upon the purpose of the speech, the opening one of the late series I made in the Senate. It was necessary I should draw the attention of the people to Congress to invite greater attention to the speech I made upon the finances and the bill offered in connection therewith. I began by skirmishing, my objective point being the Treasury—the great national curse. My scheme was no hurriedly considered affair. For three years I have devoted my mind exclusively to this subject, and you will find, if I am mad, there was some method in my madness, after all. You saw how that first speech awakened a thrill of interest throughout the nation. There is some of the evidence (pointing to a bundle of letters.) Now, if I had made my proposition alone without any preparation of the public mind, it might have gone the way of all like propositions. I hold that the Treasury is the root of our present evils. Forty millions of dollars, we will say, are received there this month. This money comes out of the pockets of the people. One man whose taxes are large has perhaps to borrow the money at a high rate of interest to pay his indebtedness to the Government. That money goes into the Treasury, and lies there hoarded up for a month or six weeks without producing a particle of benefit to the Government or the people. Twenty millions of that amount, we will say, are paid out by the Government, and twenty millions remain. The market in New York, where the capital of the country is centralized, is declared scarce. When money is scarce, those who have the least put their stocks on the market at a low rate to induce purchasers and procure capital to carry on their business. There is always in New York a class of speculators who buy up all such stocks and wait for the favorable time—next month, we will say—when the Treasury, in place of $20 000,000, pays out $60,000 000. Then money becomes abundant, and these stocks are rushed in upon the market, and the gamblers make their harvest. You see there is no equilibrium here. Our money market is all the time fluctuating, influenced by that vast, overgrown corporation, the National Treasury. Then, again, all kinds of stocks are affected in this way. I can go into the market in New York any day in my business, and by the process that obtains there, smash, by my superior force of capital, the small dealers that venture competition with me. The whole country is affected by this. Money is entirely too dear. The cotton planters at the South pay almost twenty-five per cent. for the capital to work their plantations. England is the chief market for cotton, but she is every year extending her purchases in India and Egypt, and finally, by manipulating the markets, she will damage our cotton interests at the South irretrievably. Agricultural interests suffer in the same manner from this dearness of money. England will, after a while, buy less of our agricultural staples. Capital is too dear, the cost of transportation too high, taxes too many and too crushing for our farmers. Same way with the manufacturing interests. Twenty years ago our firm in Rhode Island was one among twenty little ones; now we have the whole field to ourselves; but then we crushed out the others and are now engaged fighting the big fellows, until finally New England will have nothing but a small aggregation of enormous monopolies, wielding a power dangerous to the State and to the liberties and happiness of the people. But think of all that money that goes into the Treasury being committed to the charge of a boy, formerly a secretary of mine, whereas in Europe the most responsible men in the community are invariably selected for the duty of receiving and looking after the public funds. The Treasury, above all things, should be jealously guarded, and all its incomes and expenditures scrutinized with exceeding care."

OUR INFORMERS.

Manly Invective by a Georgia Judge.

From the Savannah Republican we clip the following report of proceedings in the United States Court at Savannah, in the Macon Armory case. The denunciation of spies and informers, which it embraces, will meet with the heartiest response from all good citizens:

JUDGE LOCHRANE ON INFORMERS.

In our hurried review of yesterday, we did not as fully as we desired, refer to the argument of Judge Lochrane in the Macon Armory case, in the U. S. District Court.

The Judge commenced a review of positions assumed by Mr. Stone, for the informer, and reviewed the law quoted, and scattered it by blow after blow of logic and law.

The Judge paid an eloquent tribute to the Government, and said he represented its power and prerogative to pardon all offenders and offenses, and protested in manly invective against informers raising their voice for the paltry pittance of private interest, to stop the machinery of justice and overthrow the power and policy of the nation. He commented on the laws of England as to the rights of informers, demonstrated its source, origin and power, and showed that they had no vested interest against the property to defeat the policy of the Government in its restoration until after judgment of record. We cannot follow the Judge in his strong and overwhelming argument in this case, carrying conviction to every mind by his copious and eloquent illustrations of the law, but we should like, had we space, to give his eloquent invectives against informers as a class. We will say, however, that he denounced them as being the meanest things that stood under the protection of the American flag, and had a right to claim the protection of its laws—that they breathed pestilence, dissension and discord among the people, infected the atmosphere of justice with their presence, festered the body politic with their sting, hatched here to crawl over the loyalty and allegiance of the people, etc. His words burned and blistered as they touched, and at the conclusion he poured a broadside into the case which seemed to be overwhelming.

BLACK OAK.

A Mine of Wealth in Tennessee.

From the Nashville Banner.]

Oak bark is acknowledged one of the most valuable products of the vegetable world, on account of its containing a large per centage of tannin. To the tanner, oak bark is of inestimable worth, but to the dyeing and calico-printing interest it is of still higher importance, in consequence of possessing a coloring property extensively used all over this country and Europe. As a dye, oak bark is sold in large half and quarter ton packages, or hogsheads, finely ground, and known to the commercial world as "quercitron." The term "quercitron" is from quercus, an oak, and citrina lemon colored; a name imposed by Dr. Edward Bankroft. The quercus tinctoria, black oak, or dyers' oak, furnishes the colored dye. It is found in all the States. The tree frequently attains the height of 70 or 80 feet, and is one of the largest individuals of the American forest.

It is the bark of quercus tinctoria which holds this valuable dye, first brought to the notice of the scientific world by the gentleman above mentioned, who gave it the name "quercitron." The quercus tinctoria, or black oak, is found in large profusion throughout this State, and a source of as immense wealth to Tennessee as her widely celebrated forests of red cedar. Speaking of the abundance of this bark of the black oak in our State, the Chicago organ of the hide and leather manufacturers, The Hide and Leather Interest, of the 7th inst., says:

"This quercus tinctoria, or black oak, of Tennessee, will probably prove one of the most important items of national wealth which that State, so rich in undeveloped resources, is one of these days to give the world. The future of the South is to show commercial changes as great and important as the social revolution now taking place there. The freedom of the blacks, whether it may prove a social benefit to them or not, will certainly result in infusing a new energy into the white race, and the fruits of the increased commercial and wealth-getting vitality will be as marked in the State of Tennessee as in any other portion of the Southern section; we may be allowed to say will probably be more marked; for as a State rich in tanning resources, as well as in this special dye-stuff, she stands almost without an equal in the Union; and we know of no branches of industry so loudly called for by the present condition of the South and the North as that of the preparation of tannin and quercitron for the dyer. Tennessee can furnish both of these interests all over the country."

There are so many uses to which this quercitron is applied, that they can scarcely be enumerated here. For all the textile fabrics composed of cotton and wool, the dress goods, shawls, carpet materials, etc., found in the warehouses of commerce all over the world, this dye is to a greater or less extent in demand. It is used in the print works and the carpet factories of this country at the present time to an enormous extent. The exports of quercitron to Europe are large. Much of it goes to the continent, and a certain quantity to England. It is the cheapest yellow dye known, and on this account its consumption is at times very great.

—Large coal deposits have been found in the White Pine silver region.

—Anti Bonaparte literature never was more in demand in France than at the present time. Two hundred thousand copies have been sold since November last of Eugene Tenot's two books on the coup d'etat; fifty thousand copies of Farile Delord's "History of the Second Empire;" thirty thousand copies of Berard's "Dramas de Waterloo;" while the demand for Rogeard's book and La Lanterne continues as brisk as ever.

"THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY
NAVIGATION COMPANY —OF THE—
SOUTH AND WEST.

To the Owners of Real Estate in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Arkansas:

THE COMPANY KNOWN TO THE PUBlic as the "Mississippi Valley Navigation Company of the South and West," is organized under a charter from the State of Louisiana. This charter authorizes a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, with the privilege of extension to one million. That the public may know the exact object of the Company, the third article of the charter is given entire, as follows:

"The object of this Company is to construct or otherwise to procure and maintain one or more steamboats, or other vessels, to run on and navigate the Mississippi river, or its tributaries, for the purpose of carrying freight, mails and passengers; to construct docks wharves, buildings and such other constructions as may be necessary to the building and repairing of vessels, and generally to exercise such incidental powers and privileges as are hereby or may be conferred on them for the purposes aforesaid

The Company propose, under the provisions of this charter to construct a line of steamers to run between the different ports on the Mississippi river and its tributaries. They will be constructed upon the low-pressure principle; they will carry less steam; they will make better time, and be in all respects more safe than any description of boats ever placed upon our waters. Divided into distinct compartments, if disaster, whether by fire or snags, shall happen to one, the boat is not endangered. In case of fire, apparatus for turning steam upon it will be provided, and it is demonstrated that steam is the most effective extinguisher of fire. In case one compartment is broken through by contact with snags, and fills with water, the others are not endangered, and the boat cannot sink, as pumps, provided for such an emergency, will be in instant operation. Safety to passengers and freight is a great end, worthy of the struggle of the people of the Mississippi Valley.

Nearly three hundred thousand dollars in money and work has already been subscribed to the capital stock of the Company. The Louisiana Legislature has passed a bill subscribing one hundred thousand dollars of stock to the Company. An additional sum of that amount will, without a doubt, be subscribed by the same body. The Company have resolved to take lands for stock, and this is the feature to which they desire to call the attention of owners of real estate. In the Southern States, on account of the disorganized condition of labor, lands are an incumbrance. Vast tracts that yield no revenue to the proprietors, pay exorbitant taxes, and thus cripple their only productive resources. This Company propose to take these lands at a fair valuation and issue to the owners their stock in lieu. If lands shall enhance in value, so will the stock enhance in value, and thus the land proprietor will carry in his pocket the equivalent of his lands, to be converted into money or property without delay. The success of this great enterprise is beyond question. The stockholder, in addition to the benefit of the enhanced value of his lands, will be part owner of a line of boats, and be entitled to dividends in their earnings.

Persons wishing to exchange lands for the stock of the Company will send to the Agent at Memphis a description of them, their productive qualities, the timber, bottom or upland; whether overflowed or not; if overflowed, what proportion; how near to county-town, to railroad, depot, river, and all facts necessary to afford the Company a satisfactory idea of the land. This may be done by certificates of reliable, disinterested persons residing in the neighborhood. The present actual value of the land may be proved in the same manner. The party offering lands must state in his proposition the lowest figures he will take. The Company will not give exorbitant prices. The titles must be unencumbered by judgments, mortgages deeds of trust, tax titles, or otherwise. This may be shown by official certificates of judges, clerks, sheriffs, or the opinions of respectable attorneys. This is believed to be the best opportunity to dispose of surplus lands in the South and West that has yet been or can be offered.

Many of the best and wealthiest citizens of the South and West are warmly embarked in the enterprise. The General Headquarters of the Company are in New Orleans, but agencies exist in all the principal cities. The enterprise has been endorsed by Underwriters, Chambers of Commerce, Engineers, Mechanics, practical navigators, and all classes of practical men.

The foregoing facts are submitted to the public in the confident belief that they will be understood and appreciated.

SUPREME COURT.

We will publish in to-morrow's APPEAL a full and complete list of Memphis cases, from the Law, Municipal and Chancery Courts, to be tried during the April term of the Supreme Court, which meets at Brownsville on the 27th inst. Members of the bar and others desiring copies will do well to send in their orders today.

DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF SHELBY COUNTY.

The following named gentlemen, composing the Executive Committee of the Democratic party in Shelby county, are requested to meet at the office of the undersigned, in the Lee Block, Union street, at 12 o'clock on Friday the 23d inst., for consultation: JESSE W. PAGE JR, ROBERT GOODE, A. SEESSEL, A. WOODWARD, W. S. BRUCE, PAUL CICALLA. Members of the press are invited to attend.

WM. RICHARDSON HUNT,
Chairman Executive Committee.

THE RADICAL NOMINATIONS.

The Radical organ, in announcing the nominees of that party for the Supreme bench, intimates of Judge ANDREWS that his being a carpet-bagger is his best recommendation; of Judge ANDREW McCLAIN, that his being a well and firmly grounded Radical is his best recommendation; and of Judge ALVIN HAWKINS, that his being a member of the Supreme Court which pronounced the Tennessee Franchise Law constitutional, is his best recommendation to the suffrages of the people of Tennessee. We think they are the best recommendations for defeat and exile to private life that ever three men were burthened with, and if the Democratic party is careful to put into the field such a ticket as the bar of Knoxville, Nashville and Memphis will under the circumstances be able to suggest, we think we may safely promise them such a result. With a Radical, disfranchising and carpet-bag Supreme Court, our doom would be sealed, so far as it depended on law or justice.

REGISTER! REGISTER!! REGISTER!!!

Every voter in Shelby county must be re-registered. The recent proclamation of Gov. SENTER makes this absolutely necessary. The old registration papers have no value. New ones must be taken out, and the sooner the better. There is no opportunity like the present. Col. WILLIAMS, the present Registrar, is disposed, as we learn, to do his duty fairly and impartially. He wastes no time, puts no needless or useless remarks for the sake of embarrassing or disgusting the citizen applying for his papers. He strictly complies with the law, but goes no farther. He opens his office at a regular hour in the morning, and holds it open during the day and until the evening is well spent. He is expert at the business of registration, and as we before remarked, puts no straws in the way to hinder a prompt and quick registration of every citizen entitled to the privilege. Under these circumstances, and with the knowledge that we have time and again published, that it is absolutely necessary for the voters of the State to be re-registered, it amounts to almost criminality in the man who refuses to avail himself of his privileges and opportunities and register. Everything depends upon the registration of voters. Our future as a body politic and corporate, our future financially and commercially, all depend upon the promptness with which those register who are entitled so to do by law. There is no excuse for delay. Duty calls and a faithful officer invites by his conduct. The disfranchised citizens of the State, of the county and city call upon every true man, every man who would not have them suffer longer the degredations of Radicalism to register at once. Come, gentlemen, be equal to the performance of a plain, simple duty, on which depends so much of welfare for Memphis and Tennessee.

OUR FUTURE.

Unless immediate steps are taken to establish additional manufactures, and a greater interest is manifested in those already in operation in Memphis, we must look for a still further retrograde movement in population, and increased grumblings as to a gloomy future. Whoever will take the trouble to contrast the advantages of many thriving towns in Georgia, and our own State capital of Nashville, with those of our highly favored city will shortly be convinced that the marked difference which characterizes them over us is the number and variety of their manufactures and the interest manifested in such establishments, not alone by those immediately concerned, but by the populations in town and country surrounding them. Only four years has passed since the besom of war swept over and through the Empire State of the South, leaving its fairest portions a blackened wilderness, without houses or fences or any of those indices of thrift and energy that earned for Georgia its proud sobriquet. Only four years, and already her cities are built up, her railroads are in successful operation, and the factories that were her best titles to distinction as the first in manufactures of the Southern States;—not only those that were so famous before the war as factories for the manufacture of coarse and fine fabrics, but some dozen or more new ones, and we are reliably informed with more than two dozen others projected and in course of construction. The example of energy and skill thus set by the Georgians has had its effect upon the people of the upcountry of South Carolina, and they, we learn, have embarked in cotton mills and woolen mills, with an order that would do credit to Manchester capitalists: and, not satisfied with what they themselves are able to accomplish with a limited capital, the fruits of the crops of 1868-9, have granted extraordinary inducements to capitalists from the North to come among them and settle and embark their means in mills and factories, workshops, and foundries. The extraordinary grant of the beautifully constructed canal near Columbia is a case in point. This Senator SPRAGUE has for a number of years upon the promise that he will construct mills to cost not less than $500,000, which sum he has doubled in expectation, as he himself says, of profits and productions that cannot be equaled or surpassed in Rhode Island or Massachusetts. In Virginia, we do not hear so much of manufactures, but we do of immigration and settlement of well-to-do market gardeners and farmers, to whom are held out inducements which, as Mr. DONOHO said the other day at the opening of the Southwestern Publishing House, if held out by the people of Memphis, as well able to do so as those of Norfolk, would secure us daily accessions of population and an influx of that go-ahead energy which of late, except in a few cases, we seem to have lost. If we are to recover the ground we have lost and gain more, it must be by the expression of a public spirit, representing fairly the leading and working men of our city. We must cease to talk, and go to work. We must do as Columbia, (S. C.,) has done, we must prepare to make concessions, to offer inducements, to offer extraordinary inducements, to the capitalists who, at the North, are in each other's way, and who have taken to gambling for want of more legitimate sources of profit. Our men of property must be liberal. Our citizens generally must be liberal. They must imitate the example of the Norfolk people, who, when strangers arrive in their city, wait upon them, ascertain their desires, wants, and destination, and if on a tour of observation, or if there as "settlers," forthwith procure a reduction of hotel, steamboat or railroad fares, arm them with letters of introduction to parties of respectability in the interior, who in turn see them properly located and fairly dealt with. In this way the population of Virginia is being rapidly increased, and by a character of people of which even the "old Virginians" are not ashamed. And to this we must come, unless indeed we would be distanced in the race for wealth and population in which the whole people of the South have entered. Our Chamber of Commerce must prepare to participate in some such labor as this, as an auxiliary to the immigration society mentioned by us some days since as on the tapis The Irish, German, English and Scotch benevolent societies will also, we hope, make an effort to attract their country people; and the property owners must prepare for the labors of these bodies by subdividing their lands into forty and eigty acre tracts, or less if necessary to meet the wants and the means of immigrants. We must have manufactures and more people. There is vast wealth to come from the intelligence and labor of the one and the proper management of the other. To secure both we must prepare to imitate the liberality of Columbia and Norfolk. We must spend and be spent in the work; we must bestir ourselves and make sacrifices, if need be heavy sacrifices as a community, to secure what all desire and what so many are realizing while we are idle. The cotton trade alone will not support Memphis. More manufactures are needed. What gentleman will be the next to add his to the honorable names already enlisted in this description of enterprise in Memphis!

THE N. O. J & G. N. R R.

An election for Directors of this growing corporation was held in New Orleans on Monday last, at which, we rejoice to say, the old Board, composed as follows, was re-elected by a decided majority:

For Louisiana Directors—G. T. Beauregard, Wm. A. Gordon, Wm. Henderson, Williamson Smith, Cornelius Fellowes, C. J. Leeds, J. J. Warren, Henry Florance, A. Schreiber, John Armstrong, E. J. Forstall, J. C. Denis.

For Mississippi Directors—Wirt Adams, T. F. Montgomery, L. E. Houston, Joshua Green, B. L. Hatch, J. B. Hemphill.

Quite an opposition was manifested against this ticket on political grounds. The Radicals, who are just now ruling in New Orleans and Louisiana, were anxious to possess themselves of so rich a plumb as the Jackson Railroad would have proven in their hands, and for that purpose had combined with those of Mississippi to defeat Gen. BEAUREGARD and his co-directors, under whose management and auspices this important route of travel has not only recuperated, but pushed branches towards the far North and the East. But, notwithstanding this combination of Radicalism planned with consummate tact, the triumph was awarded where by the general consent of all the people interested it should have been. The votes of New Orleans on its 80,000 shares, the votes of Louisiana on its 61,000 shares, and of the State of Mississippi on 17,500 shares, were all received under protest. The city shares, however, having been cast in favor of the above ticket rendered its election certain by a very handsome majority. The gentlemen elected are all well known as intelligent and honorable citizens, who will doubtless give their time and attention to the business of a railroad destined at no distant day to rival in wealth and success the famous railroads of New York and Pennsylvania. With such a future in view, it is well that it should be controlled by men like Gen. BEAUREGARD, whose skill as an engineer no less than his general qualifications and experience in life, admirably fit him for his present distinguished position. We congratulate him and the people of New Orleans upon the result.

FOREIGN.

MILAN, April 21.—Government has discovered another formidable Magyar conspiracy in the city. Papers which were concealed by the revolutionists, and which give details of conspiracy were unearthed and seized, together with large amounts of arms, ammunition, etc. A number of the leaders have been arrested.

BERLIN, April 21.—The Prussian Government has instructed its ambassador at Paris to thank Marquis De La Vallete, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, for his pacific sentiments expressed by him in his speech of the 10th inst. in the Corps Legislatiff.

BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, April 21.—In the United States Circuit Court, this morning, in the case of Kimberly vs. Butler, Chief Justice Chase sustained the demurrer of the plaintiff to the defendant's plea in abatement of privilege from arrest, as a member of Congress, and decided that the word arrest, as used in the Constitution, means an arrest or detention by force, with a view to imprisonment, and does not extend to process of a summons in a civil suit. The argument then continued on other pleas.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Wilson called up his resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy, with the consent of the Columbia government, to cause the surveys to be made for a railway or ship canal across the Isthmus of Darian.

After debate the resolution was laid over in order to put it in a more acceptable form.

Anthony reported that the Committee on Printing had made a contract with Bailey & Rives for reporting the Congressional proceedings, and explained it would effect a saving of $18,000 yearly from the present rates.

Carpenter called up his resolution calling on the several heads of departments for information as to the number of clerks employed by them, where they came from, and who recommended them, etc.

The resolution gave rise to a lively debate about the general question of appointments.

Abbott offered an amendment providing that appointments shall be made according to State populations.

This opened a wider range of debate and caused the discussion of the relative rights of the North and South.

Sawyer asserted that the Democratic State of Kentucky had received more appointments in departments than the entire Republican South, and said he had been told by a member of the Cabinet that Senators from the reconstructed States must remember that the white Republican vote of the South was very small.

The Senate at 10:30 went into executive session.

LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, April 21.—Telegrams from New York, New England and the Canadas report very extensive rains, and the country almost submerged. The destruction of property is reported as being very great.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—While the rubbish of an old building on Olive street between Second and Third, was being hauled away this morning, the flooring upon which a team and wagon was standing gave way, and the wagon and three men were precipitated into the cellar beneath. The falling of the floor brought down a portion of the standing walls, which fell upon and buried the men. One man, named Mike Delaney, was killed; another man was badly cut about the face and head and had a rib or two broken, and the third escaped with but a few scratches.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of Trust to me executed by Dominic Zweifel and George Waechter I will, on Saturday, the 22d day of May, A. D. 1869, on the premises, at the Eagle brewery, lately carried on by Zweifel, Hargan & Co., proceed to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described real property, to-wit: The said Dominic Zweifel and George Waechter's undivided two-thirds in a lot of land lying in the county of Shelby, State of Tennessee, and the city of Memphis, described as follows: Beginning at the east side of an alley between Poplar and Bass streets, commencing at the South line of Geo. Waechter's lot and running South on said alley thirty-two feet; thence eastwardly seventy-five feet; thence southwardly again one hundred and twenty-six feet, more or less, to the bayou; thence eastwardly seventy-five feet; thence northwardly one hundred and fifty-eight feet, more or less, with Nicholas Huppert's line; thence westwardly one hundred and fifty feet with George Waechter's line to the beginning, it being the same lot of land sold to Geo Waechter by John P. Schlocker, 28th October, 1863 and part of lot sold to George Waechter, by Nicholas Huppert on the 6th day of April, 1863. Also the said Zweifel & Waechter's two thirds in the barrels, casks kettles, engines, malting machines, cool beds, malt mill and wagons employed in the brewery of Zweifel, Hargan & Co.

The undivided third part of George Waechter will be first sold, and if that does not bring sufficient to satisfy the said trust, then the undivided third of said Zweifel will be sold.

The title to above described property is presumed to be good, but I sell only as trustee.

JAMES BACHMAN, Trustee.

And at the same time and place I, the undersigned, assignee of said Dominic Zweifel, bankrupt, will proceed to sell the equity of redemption of said Domisic Zweifel in and to the above described property. Terms cash.

PUBLIC SALE

—OF—

SUBURBAN LOTS

—ON THE—

MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD.

We have the pleasure of announcing that several owners of the lands fronting on the MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD, in view of the growing demand for residences on this favorite Road, have authorized us to OFFER AT PUBLIC SALE, about

ONE HUNDRED LOTS,

Varying in size from 5 to 20 acres, extending along the whole railroad front—the Buntyn, Trezevant and Breathitt Tracts, embracing the Flag Station at the old Race Track on Trezevant Avenue, the Park Station, Buntyn's, and the Raleigh road crossing, at Mr. Grier's. The lots offered are immediately at and around the different Stations, none of them being beyond the distance of a few minutes' walk.

Fine health, pure well water, and comparative exemption from musquitoes, are some of the great advantages held out by this neighborhood over a city residence, while the economical advantages in the cost of ground are yet greater.

Referring to the quick transition from city to country, from business to retirement, and the precision with which time may be divided between business avocations and domestic life, it has become at least important, if not indispensable to the perfection of a country home that it be on a line of Railroad, and within half an hour's time of the conveniences and advantages of a city. All these are pre eminently found in the lands embraced in this sale. The proprietors are willing to meet purchasers upon the most liberal terms, and will offer these lands for a greater or less cash payment, and on long or short time, as the parties may desire, though it will be desired and expected that purchasers will, in every case, buy with a view to immediate improvement and occupation.

Plans of the property will be shown at our office.

The sale will take place on the premises on THURSDAY, 13TH DAY OF MAY.

Persons will be carried to the sale on special trains from the Memphis and Charleston depot.

QUININE

—MADE—

Sweet and Palatable to the Taste.

IT is a well known fact to our physicians that Quinine must be taken in some form as antidote to chills, fever and the malarial poisons of our country; and it will be gratifying to invalids to know that this, the most bitter of all medicines, can be prepared in the form of a

LIQUID OR POWDER.

So as to deprive it entirely of its bitterness, and render it both sweet and pleasant to the taste, even to infants and children.

This valuable medicine can be found, ready prepared at all hours, at the Drug Emporium (late J. B. Wasson & Co.,) No. 318 Main street.

To Physicians we would say,

Our Prescription Department is thoroughly complete. Our assistants in attendance are graduates in pharmacy, thus affording a guarantee of skill and care in dispensing medicine and in prescribing the above preparation. Physicians will please write the symbol S. Q. D. (or Quinia Dulcis) and number of grains, also whether in a powder or liquid form.

Our Retail Department is replete with everything pertaining to the trade. Ladies and gentlemen will find a rare selection of genuine Lubin's, Coudray's and other

Extracts, Perfumes, Pomades, Etc.,

And all other toilet articles of recent importation worthy their attention. It will afford us pleasure to wait on our acquaintances and others, as in years past.

The wholesale trade supplied as usual.

JOHNSON.

A Visit to the Catholic Orphans.

His Reception at St. Agnes Academy and State Female College.

His Departure---Farewell---Good-bye.

Ex-President Johnson, escorted by Mayor Leftwich, John Loague, Esq., and Mr. J. M. Keating, of the APPEAL, yesterday morning visited the Catholic Orphan Asylum. The party arrived at the beautiful and tastefully adorned home of the poor orphans about half-past nine o'clock, and were received by the Sister in charge, by whom they were shown through the building. The appropriately fitted chapel, the parlor and reception room, dormitories for the children, and lastly the schoolroom where were assembled some sixty or more children of both sexes and all ages, from two to fifteen years. After the Sister had introduced the President and his friends, one of the children stepped forward and addressing Mr. Johnson, welcomed him to their home and thanked him for his presence. The words of the interesting child, coupled with the surroundings, went straight to the heart of the "man of the people," and moved him almost to tears. He responded feelingly and in words as beautiful and appropriate as could well be selected. He reminded them, in plain, simple, but none the less eloquent language, of the beauties of education; what a pleasure, solace and profit it would prove in after life; cautioned them to obedience to their teachers, and to an observance of the religious precepts inculcated by the good sisters. On concluding a little girl, of perhaps five years, stepped up to the ex President and presented him with a beautiful boquet of flowers, for which she was kissed and received thanks. After partaking of some refreshments the party took their departure for the

where they arrived about half-past ten. Here they were received by the Mother Superior, who after introducing them to the Sister assistants, escorted them through the main building, explaining as they went the uses of the several rooms, and giving a brief but interesting history of the school and its progress. This visit, as was that to the Orphan Asylum, was much enjoyed by the ex-President and his companions, and will long be treasured as a memorable occasion.

From the St. Agnes Academy Mr. Johnson was driven to the

and through it. This proved among the most interesting of the ex-President's visits. He asked many questions in regard to our lovely "city of the dead," and made many appropriate comments upon the views, the graves and the general condition of one of the loveliest spots the earth affords. From the Cemetery to the

was but a short drive. Here the party was taken in charge by Rev. Dr. Collins, who introduced the Ex-President first to the teachers and afterward to the children, by whom he was received respectfully. He made a speech to them that we cannot but regard one of the best efforts of his life. Every word of it was appropriate and timely. He referred to their education by teachers so admirably trained for and adapted to the work of cultivating their young minds, reminded them—of what they are no doubt often told by the good Doctor—of the uses, benefits and blessings of education, and closed by a suggestion that many of them would shortly take upon themselves the duties of life for which they were being prepared, and that if they did not now make good use of their opportunities it would be to them a constant source of regret.

The party then left for the city, having but time sufficient left to enable them to reach the Overton Hotel for Mr. Johnson's departure on the one p.m. train for the Memphis and Charleston Railroad for Huntsville, where he will speak to-day. It was the intention of Mayor Leftwich to have conducted Mr. Johnson to others of the private schools, including that of the McPherson Female College, on Adams street, and the public schools, but want of time prevented; and so the ex-President was reluctantly compelled to leave without enjoying a visit to all of our educational institutions.

THE DEPARTURE.

About half-past twelve members of the Reception Committee and Committee of Escort from Nashville assembled at the Overton, whence, in carriages, accompanied by a band, they escorted Mr. Johnson to the depot. The city's guest rode in a barouche with Mayor Leftwich and Alderman Duff. The cortege moved down Main to Madison street, and was everywhere greeted by demonstrations of respect by the citizens, the ladies being conspicuous, as also the young ladies and children of the Female Academy on Madison street, presided over by Mr. Halle. Arrived at the cars, the time being brief, the gentlemen of the committees took their leave, and precisely at one o'clock the train was off. Mr. Johnson is accompanied by Col. Williams and Mr. Redfield of the Cincinnati Commercial. Thus closed one of the most memorable visits ever made to Memphis by a public man, during which Mr. Johnson has been the recipient of every character of demonstration of respect and confidence in the power of this people to bestow, and with which he expressed himself, privately and publicly, in the highest degree delighted and satisfied.

The ex-President will speak to-day at Huntsville. We will present our readers to-morrow with a telegraphic synopsis of his remarks, and a description of his reception.

Go to Mart Walt's and buy your old government Java Coffee. If it is not genuine, no charge.

NO POSTPONEMENT.—If you want a good dinner before going to the races, and a splendid supper after returning, go to the St. Charles, corner Second and Jefferson streets. †

A PROVERB.—Time out of mind it has been a proverbial expression, when one wished to indicate the fact that a person's feelings or temper had been severely hurt, to say that his corns had been trod on. This expressed everything in a word or two. What could be more expressive? What hurts worse than to have some hoof put carelessly on a pet corn? Nobody but a vindictive brute would punish a fellow-creature with such torture. But the world is full of vindictive brutes—therefore a 'fellow-mortal' has no business to keep corns to tread on. Every one should go to Dr. Lane, at the Peabody, and have them taken out by the new, painless and instantaneous process.

THE RACES.

Spring Meeting, 1869—Third Day.

The Velocipede Race–Hurdle Race, Etc.

Splendid Time Made.

Yesterday was the first really propitious day that the racing fraternity have enjoyed since the commencement of the present spring term. The skies were cloudless and the wind, which had been blowing from the northwest steadily for the preceding twenty-four hours, had dried off the roads leading out to the track, so as to make them delightful driving.

The consequence was that at an early hour yesterday afternoon the roads leading out to the track were thronged with every species of vehicle that could be used as a mode of locomotion, and by the time for the commencement of the races, such a crowd was on the grounds as had never before been in attendance on any similar occasion.

were all of them crowded before half past two o'clock, and the ladies' stand was especially well filled. We do not remember of ever having seen it so crowded, and compute the attendance in this section alone to have been equal to that of the preceding on every portion of the track.

The gentlemen's stand was also crowded to repletion long before the time for the races to begin, and we noticed among the most prominent attendants some of our most honored and respected citizens.

In a word, the grand stand was a miniature representation of the "Derby day" in England, and the interest manifested and marked on each face was scarcely less than that seen on the great turf day in London. The total attendance was set down as not less than fifteen hundred persons.

THE TRACK

was in splendid condition. If the Directory could have had the management of the weather, they could not have possibly prepared the turf for the occasion in a manner to give more satisfaction to man and beast—that is to horse and backer.

THE FIRST RACE.

was for the Steamboat stake, hurdle race, $500; dash of two miles, four hurdles, eight leaps; entrance $25, p. or p., three or more to fill. The entries were as follows, to go in the order in which they stand:

E Warwick enters cht. h. Transit, five years old, by Bleakwind; dam Prairie Flower, by imported Sovereign. Colors—red and blue, white sash.

Henry Van Lieu enters br. g., five years old, by Capt. Beard; dam imported Sovereign. Colors—red and blue.

Edinboro was either withdrawn or forfeited. There being no announcement to the contrary it is supposed he was withdrawn. There were no pools sold in this race as it was considered one-sided from the first, and there was consequently no bidding.

THE RACE.

The first attempt resulted in a start, and the drum tapped with both horses in a gallop, Van Lieu's entry leading by a length. In this position the first and second hurdles were leapted, neither of them being cleared, however. The third hurdle was a clean leap, apparently so, at least, from the reporters' stand. The first mile was made in 2:25, Van Lieu's entry passing the string two lengths ahead of Transit, both going in an easy gallop.

On the second round the two first hurdles were leaped cleaner. Between the second and third Transit's rider, who had manifestly been holding him back with might and main, gave him the least bit of tether and he shot ahead, coming up with and lapping the brown gelding in a leap or two. In this position, neck and neck, they came to the turn, and as they made it, were greeted with cheers, amid which they came rattling down the home stretch, Transit a neck ahead, coming under the string in 4:30, and being declared the winner of the race. In leaping the last hurdle both horses dragged and it fell. While this is regarded and ruled as clean riding in this section, it would have been declared foul in England or the British Provinces.

SECOND RACE.

This was the Gaston purse for velocipedes, with the following entries:

Harry L. Pickering—Colors, Blue, White and Blue.
G. C. Oliver—Colors, Red Sash.
J. Trabucco—Colors, Blue sash.
Geo. Worley—Colors, White Sash.

As in the foregoing, there were no pools sold in this extraordinary race—the like of which never was heard of before on a legitimate course and as a part of a regular and legitimate meeting.

THE START.

The fiery and untamed steeds were brought forth at the tap of the bell, and the intrepid riders glittering in all the magnificence of crimson, and yellow and blue—in short, of the rainbow—went to the stand, got their instructions from the great mogul and prepared to mount. The mounting was a comparatively quiet affair—there being no cavorting, rearing or snorting. The start was made altogether, Worley having the track, Pickering being second, Trabucco third and Oliver fourth. For fear of being accused of burlesquing the affair, we will not attempt a description of the journey around, nor the trials and tribulations which attended it. Near the half-mile post the track got so bad that one of the riders, Mr. Oliver, dismounted and led his gallant steed through the slough. Thus the first half mile was made, amid jeers and laughter, in 5:27. The last half-mile, being somewhat down grade, the velocipedists made somewhat better time. Mr. Oliver mounted after getting out of the slough, and the four came a rattling down the home stretch—Worley leading by several lengths. When near the quarter stand Oliver, who was second, made a dash for "even," but failed, and Worley crossed the line about twenty feet ahead, Oliver next, Pickering third, and Trabucco fourth. The announcement on the board amended this order of things, and put Oliver last, as he had dismounted and run along his machine on the back stretch. Time—10:1½.

The announcement produced considerable fun, and also a few long faces among those who were betting on Oliver as second. The winner rode up, got his purse, cut a caper or two, and the track was cleared for the THIRD RACE.

This was the race of the day. In it all the hopes and fears and expectations of the day were concentrated. It was for the Peabody Hotel purse, $250, mile heats, $50 to second horse, with the following entries, to go in the order in which they are named:

Duncan & McMahon enter cht. m. Viola, by Jack Malone; dam by Wagner. Colors: Blue and red.

R. B. Cheatham enters b. c. Bartholomew, by Bill Cheatham; dam by Lexington. Colors: White, blue trimming.

Peter Mitchell enters Elgin, four years old, by Shelby; dam Lady Bury by imported Emu. Colors: Red, white and red.

E. Warwick enters c. h. Transit, five years old, by Bleakwind; dam Prairie Flower, by imported Sovereign. Colors: Red and blue, white sash.

S Leonard enters cht. h. Rochester, five years old, by imported Bonnie Scotland; dam Lady Lancaster. Colors: Red and white.

THE POOLS

In this race were animated and Little Mack was the favorite three to one against the field.

FIRST HEAT.

Rochester led off, closely followed by Little Mack, the others getting off in a bunch a length or so behind. In this position they continued to the second quarter, where Little Mack and Rochester had put three lengths between them and their competitors, Rochester still leading Little Mack by a length. Between the half and the three-quarter post Little Mack commenced to crawl up, and at the turn he was neck and neck with him, making the trip amid the deafening cheers of his friends and backers. From the turn it was plain that the heat belonged to Little Mack—though it was by the skin of his teeth, up to the distance stand, where he forged a little ahead and coming in crossed the line a length ahead amid loud and prolonged huzzas, Rochester being second, Bartholomew third, Elgin fourth, Viola fifth and Transit sixth. Time, 1:50¾.

SECOND HEAT.

Pools were now sold one hundred to fifteen on Little Mack against the field, and bets of ten to one were offered with few takers.

In this heat Elgin got the lead of Little Mack, and Rochester by a length, with Viola, Transit and Bartholomew bunched a half length or so behind them. At the first quarter all the horses were in a clump. Here, however, Little Mack and Rochester forged ahead, and put a length or so between them and their followers. In this position they traversed the back stretch and nearly to the turn, where all six were again apparently in a bunch, out of which Little Mack and Bartholomew were soon seen to emerge and come down the home stretch struggling for the supremacy, the struggle resulting in Little Mack's victory by a half length or so, Bartholomew being second, Transit third, Rochester fourth, Elgin fifth, and Viola sixth—Little Mack winning the heat and the race. Time, 1:48½.

RECAPITULATION.

Conlisk's Little Mack, by Eclipse; dam by Weatherbit	1	1
S. Leonard's Rochester, by Bonnie Scotland; dam Lady Lancaster	2	4
R. B. Cheatham enters b. c. Bartholomew, by Bill Cheatham; dam by Lexington	3	2
Peter Mitchell enters Elgin, four years old, by Shelby; dam Lady Bury by imported Emu	4	5
Duncan & McMahon enter cht. m. Viola, by Jack Malone; dam by Wagner	5	6
E. Warwick enters ch. h. Transit, five years old, by Bleakwind; dam Prairie Flower, by imported Sovereign	6	3

Time 1:50¾; 1:48½.

This ended the sport for the day, and with the utmost good humor and unanimity the vast assemblage dispersed, and the road to the city was again lined with every description of vehicle, from a velocipede to a four-horse omnibus.

TO-DAY'S SPORT.

The following are the entries for to-day, Thursday, April 22d:

MERCHANTS' AND BANKERS' PURSE.

$500; two mile heats; free for all ages.

James Conlisk enters b. h. Larkin; by Lexington, out of Magenta. Colors—blue and blue, orange sash.

S. Leonard enters cht. f., Ontario, by imp. Bonnie Scotland; dam Lady Lancaster. Colors—red and white.

Peter Mitchell enters b. h. Elgin, four years old, by Shelby; dam Lady Bury, by imported Emu. Colors—red, white and red.

LIVERY STABLE KEEPERS' PURSE.

$250; dash of two miles; free for all ages.

James Conlisk enters b. h. Gilroy, by Lexington; dam Magnolia. Colors—blue and blue, orange sash.

S. Leonard enters b. f. Queen of the West, four years old, by imported Bonnie Scotland; dam A la Mode. Colors—red and white.

J. McMahon enters blk. h. Pat Cleburne, aged, by Hiawatha; dam imported Emu. Colors—red and green.

W. Brady enters b. m. Agnes Donovan, six years old, by Lexington, dam Little Peggy, by Cripple. Colors—red and blue.

R. B. Cheatham enters b. f., three years old, by Rogers; dam by Embassador. Colors—white, blue trimmings.

SOUTHERN EXPRESS VELOCIPEDE PURSE.

$100; dash of a mile; entrance fee $5; play or pay; entrance money to second Velocipede; five or more to fill. Entries close at secretary's office at 12 o'clock to-day (Thursday) at Citizens' Union Bank.

VOLUNTEER PURSE.

$100; mile heats; three or more to fill.

J. G. Ballantine enters b. m. Theta, five years old, by Vandal; dam by imported Sovereign. Colors: Red and white.

Gordon Granger enters b. h. Crystal, four years old, by Avalanche; dam by Childe Harold. Colors: Red and red.

Wm Brady enters Brown Dick, jr., aged, by Brown Dick; dam by imported Sovereign. Colors: Blue and blue.

POOLS.

In the pool-selling last night by Mr. Passmore at the Overton, in the Merchants' and Bankers' purse, Ontario was the favorite about two to one. Larkin, however, was not without friends and backers, and came up pretty well. In the Livery Stable purse Queen of the West stood thirty to seventeen. Gilroy was the next favorite, selling seventeen to eight against the field. There were no sales in the velocipede race.

THE COURTS.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.—Nothing was done in this Court yesterday. To-day the Court will meet and proceed to disposed of the calendar set for yesterday.

CRIMINAL COURT. — Wm. Hunter, Judge.—One more juror was obtained in the Doran case yesterday. This swells the number to ten. The Sheriff was ordered to summon another panel to report to-day at 2 o'clock, when it is probable the jury will be compiled.

LAW COURT—H. S. Lee, Judge.—This Court will convene to-day and take up the regular calendar, commencing with No. 228, Moore & Co. vs. J. N. Oliver & Co. et al.

CHANCERY COURT—Wm. M. Smith, Chancellor.—This Court is still engaged in the trial of the case of Crisp vs. Barry et al. This is a very old case, one which has been encumbering the docket for a number of years, and contains a vast amount of evidence in depositions, the reading of which has occupied the Court for the last two days. To day the argument will commence and probably continue a day or two. There are no matters of public interest in the above case.

The Floral Tribute.--Correspondence.

MEMPHIS, April 19, 1869.

At a meeting held by the Sodality Silver Band, on Saturday, April 17th, it was Resolved, That we tender our services to Mrs. M. C. Gallaway, and the Committee on Floral Decoration of the Confederate soldiers graves.

J. P. CAREY,
ALBERT JONES,
FRANK MANSFORD,
Committee.

Messrs. J. P. Carey, Albert Jones and Frank Mansford, Committee.

Gentlemen: Your note, offering the services of the Sodality Band for the Floral Offering, has been received. Permit me, on behalf of the Association, and of every one who feels an interest in the hallowed custom of paying annual floral tributes to the memory of our departed heroes, to thank you for the kind offer, and notify you of its acceptance.

Respectfully,
MRS. M. C. GALLAWAY,
President.

MEMPHIS, April 20, 1869.

CONSERVATIVE MASS MEETING.—By virtue of the authority in me vested as a member of the State Central Democratic Committee representing the Eighth Congressional District, and in obedience to the request of many citizens, I do hereby call a meeting of the citizens of the whole county of Shelby, at the Assembly Hall, on Main street, Memphis, on Saturday evening, at two o'clock, for the purpose of nominating and appointing an Executive Committee for the Conservative party of Shelby county, preparatory for the ensuing Judicial campaign. All good citizens are invited to co-operate.

M. D. L. STEWART,
Of State Central Committee.

BUCKEYE SALVE.—A fresh supply of the justly celebrated article for the cure of Piles, received and for sale by G. W. JONES & CO., Wholesale Druggists, 257 Main street.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Glorious weather yesterday.

—The Sodality band did not escort Mr. Johnson to the depot yesterday.

—The work of repairing the row of buildings opposite the APPEAL counting room, lately burned, progress rapidly.

—McWade's benefit does not come off to-morrow night, as many were led to suppose by our remarks, but on Friday night week.

—Father Ryan delivers his closing lecture at the New Assembly Hall to-night. Subject: "The Use of Fine Arts in Religious Worship."

—Gen. Trauernicht of the Nashville Demokrat returned home yesterday by the Memphis and Louisville road. He was accompanied by Mr. Richards.

—We were pleased to meet Mr. Robert H. Alsobrook, representing the firm of Garrard, Craig & Co., No. 40 Union street, New Orleans. We commend him to our friends as a representative of the above named firm.

—We received from G. R. Redford, Esq, yesterday, a dozen or so ripe, luscious strawberries, not one of them less than three-quarters of an inch in diameter. They are of the "Wilson's Albany" and were grown in the open air. This is the first of the season—grown in these regions at least.

—We were pleased to meet, yesterday, Maj. W. C. Butler, General Agent of the Enterprise Mutual Insurance Company of Cincinnati, who is in the city on business pertaining to the company which he represents. Maj Butler was a gallant Confederate officer, and has hosts of friends throughout the Southwest.

—The alarm of fire sounded yesterday evening about half-past five o'clock was caused by the igniting of the roof of the oil factory at the foot of Poplar street, by some cinders which fell upon it. Fortunately the fire was put out before any material damage was done.

—To-morrow is St George's Day, and the anniversary of Shakspeare's birth-day—that is, if the old legend that he was born and died on the same day of the year, be true. Of this, however, there is no proof except the very ambiguous inscription upon his tombstone, which may mean that or may not.

—Mr. G. W. Malmburg takes a benefit Saturday night. We hope it will be a "rouser," for Mr. Malmburg is one of the most deserving young actors of the troupe who have furnished us so much pleasure and amusement during the present season.

—There was a better attendance at the New Memphis last night than there has been on any previous occasion during the past two weeks. The play was Byron's burlesque of Cinderilla, Leffingwell taking his great role of the "Gushing Clorinda." To say that the affair was laughable, would but faintly convey an idea of the intensity of the mirth-provoking and ludicrous absurdity of Leffingwell in this "get up." To appreciate it, it must be seen. Lanagan's "Baron Balderdash" was a capital piece of burlesque acting, as were also Miss Plunkett's "Thisbe," and Mrs. Cline's "Dandini." To night the play will be Aladdin, with Leffingwell in his great character of the "Widow Twankey."

—From the New Orleans Crescent of Saturday we learn that at a meeting held at the office of Col. John A. Grow, of the Mississippi Valley Navigation Company of the South and West, the following named gentlemen were elected to fill the vacancies in the Board: A. G. Brice and W. J. Cahoon. The company has been organized by the election of B. Bloomfield as General Agent and W. Cahoon as Assistant Agent. Maj. Bloomfield is so well known to the public of New Orleans that it is almost superfluous to commend this appointment as one eminently fit to be made. He is a gentleman of untiring energy, great experience, fine business qualifications, and possesses the full confidence of the community. Capt. DeHaven and Maj. Bloomfield start to-day for a trip to several of the interior cities on business connected with the company. They will visit Vicksburg, Memphis and other points before returning to New Orleans.

—Father Ryan's lecture at the New Assembly Hall last evening was well attended, the audience being composed of many of the most intelligent of our citizens. The subject, "The helpless and unfortunate under Pagan and Christian civilization," was handled in a manner that gave satisfaction to the audience, who listened attentively to the streams of eloquence that flowed from the lips of the speaker. It was indeed a matchless effort, that impressed alike the distinguished lawyers, doctors and people from all the walks of life among the audience. As a matter of course the lecturer was frequently applauded. Father Ryan delivers his farewell lecture at the same place to-night, and has chosen for his subject, at the request of several friends, "The use of the fine arts in religious worship." This being a topic that is exciting considerable interest at the present time, it should draw a full house, especially when pictured by one so gifted with descriptive powers and oratorical genius as the gentleman who will lecture at the New Assembly Hall this evening.

Herzog & Bro, in the Marble Block, open this morning the prettiest stock of Spring and Summer dress goods brought to Memphis this season, consisting in part of those new Bareges, Poplins, in all colors, elegant striped Grenadines, beautiful Japanese cloths, striped and plain Lawns plain colored Bareges and Mozambiques, fine Mohair Lustres, pretty Granite Poplins, and those cheap striped Challies and Alpacas, which they sell at lower figures than heretofore offered.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Purest and Safest—The efficacy of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where this marvelous tonic has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until, at last, the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number, have candidly admitted that the pharmacopoeia of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial effects in dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York "These Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have." But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As A PREPARATORY ANTIDOTE to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. It is the HOUSEHOLD TONIC of the AMERICAN PEOPLE, and in all human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of Science recognize its merits; and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proved by its vast and ever increasing sales.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, April 21, 1869. }

FINANCE.

The usual routine of banking business to-day was not varied by any incident worthy of especial mention. At every counter we heard the customary complaint of dull times and money easy for all ordinary business purposes. Eastern cotton bills are offered in sufficient amounts to keep up Exchange balances, and, as a general thing, our banks manage to get along very well by mutual accommodations. Bills are taken upon the East at par and bank Exchange at ⅛c premium, while the selling rate is steady at ¼c premium.

City and other Bonds are in fair demand but no sales.

City, County and Police Scrips are unchanged and nominal.

Gold opened in New York at 134c and closed at 134½c. Sterling Exchange closed steady at 108½c for prime 60-day bills. Money on call 7 per cent.

Tennessee Bonds are improving rapidly. Sales of old were reported to-day at 70c and new at 68½c.

We have but light transactions to report in Gold; $700 and $450 were taken at 133½c, and in one or two instances 134c was, we believe, paid for small amounts. Selling at 134½@135c.

Governments at the opening were dull but generally steady. At noon they were a little firmer and moderately active, closing somewhat unsettled.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market to-day at the opening was dull, with estimated sales 7000 bales—Uplands 12¼, Orleans 12⅜d.

The New York market opened dull and unchanged, Low Middlings 27½c, Uplands 28½c, Good Middlings 29½c. At noon it was dull and nominal and closed quiet, weak and unchanged, Low Middlings 27½c, Uplands 28½c, Good Middlings 29½c. Sales to spinners 970 bales; to speculators 58 bales, and for export 1000 bales.

In this market there was a fair inquiry upon Liverpool and Bremen account, but at low figures. Many holders would not uncover their tables, but probably 1200 bales were taken during the day. Among the sales were 34 bales Low Ordinary at 23½c; 61, 4, 25 Ordinary at 25c; 15 reported as Good Ordinary at 24½c; 30, 60 do at 25½c; 119 Strict Good Ordinary at 25¾c; 61, 40 Shy Low Middlings 26c; 27 Low Middlings 26½c; 112 Middlings 27c. A New Orleans exchange says of cotton frauds—singular waste and shrinkage—and the way they do it in that city:

Complaints of fraudulent packing and of the consequent loss sustained both in weight and quality by consignees, have been so frequent as to materially affect the cotton trade. As factors and buyers deal only in samples, such instances of chicanery and bad faith affect materially the rates.

On Friday, the house of Mummy, Luling & Co., on Union street, gave an order to the Merchants' Press to send down 296 bales of cotton belonging to the house to the ship Magdala, then about to sail for Liverpool. The order was executed, and the number of bales corresponding to the order were delivered on Saturday to the ship in question.

From some reason or other a suspicion was awakened in the mind of Mr. Luling that there was some fraud in the transaction. He consequently went down to the wharf with his own cotton weigher and had all of the bales reweighed.

The result showed that thirteen out of the lot had lost each from 150 to 200 pounds. The cotton furthermore proved upon examination to be of an inferior quality—said to be of the kind that is made up of trashy cotton and such as is carried to the pickeries. The bales, as sampled, were, in short, no part of the lot belonging to the house or that had been ordered to be shipped. These bales, nevertheless, had been made to bear the marks and numbers of their house.

Mr. Luling thereupon made a complaint of the matter to the Merchants' Press Company, who denied all knowledge of the transaction and declared it to be a mistake.

The above is the account given of the affair at the house of Mummy, Luling & Co.

Subsequent to the above facts, one of the clerks confessed that he had had it sent to a pickery and had had it split. That is to say that a cesarian operation had been performed, and that each bale had been disemboweled of two hundred pounds. This confession, as far as it goes, relieves the proprietors of all blame in the transaction, though it of course does not invalidate the claims of the owners of the cotton against the Press.

The cotton was bought in the regular course of trade from T. H. and J. M. Allen & Co., and the operation was conducted in good faith, so far as the two houses were concerned.

Whatever may be the facts in the case, we learn that the matter will take the form of a judicial investigation, and such legal steps will be taken as will prevent the recurrence of similar charges.

TRADE.

Our city wears the appearance of considerable activity, especially upon our retail streets, but we can't say as much of Front and other streets where heavy business is transacted. To view our corners at any hour of the morning, one would imagine that it was a gala day of some kind, owing to the number of gaily dressed ladies and men to be seen, but the latter are merely birds of passage, most of them drawn hither by the races, and by noon they have all disappeared, not again to be seen until after dark. We have little or no change to note in prices since our last.

Green APPLES are scarce and in fair local demand at 6 to $9 per barrel.

There is not much Choice BUTTER in market and prices are steady at 40 to 42c. Good 30 to 35c.

There is a light demand for BEANS. Mixed White 2 to $2 50 per bushel. Navy 3 to $3 50.

The PROVISION market is very firm and some holders of meats ask ⅛ to ¼c higher, but the advance is hard to realize. Mess Pork 32 50 to $33 00 in large and small way. Prime Mess 29 00 to $30 00. Prime Pork 27 00 to $28 00. Rumps 26 to $28. Jowls $24. Clear bulk Sides 16½ to 16¾c. Clear Rib 15¾ to 16c. Rib Sides 15 to 15½c. Shoulders 12¼ to 12¾c. Bacon, clear Sides 17½ to 17¾c. Shoulders 13½ to 14c. S. C. Hams, plain, 18½ to 19c. S. C. canvassed 20 to 21c. Lard, in tierces, 18 to 19c; kegs 19½ to 20c; caddies 20½ to 21½c.

There is no change in COFFEE. All grades are in fair supply and light demand. We quote ordinary to choice Rio 19 to 26c; Java 34 to 35c.

There is a fair stock of CORNMEAL on hand and demand is mostly in a small way. Fresh, 3 50 to $3 75; kilndried, 3 75 to $4.

The demand is active for all kinds of DRIED FRUITS. Dried Apples 9 to 12c; Peaches 11 to 14c.

The supply of EGGS improves and prices are lower. We quote at 18 to 19c.

In FLOUR there is no change. All grades are dull and weak. Superfine 5 50 to $6 25; X 6 50 to $7; XX 7 50 to $8 50; XXX and Fancy brands 9 to $11.

The FEED market is only moderately active. No Corn upon the levee; held in store at 80c. Oats are steady at 75 to 80c. Bran scarce at $26. Hay firm and scarce at 26 to $27.

The HIDE market is dull and prices weak. Green 9 to 9½c; Salt 10½ to 11c; Dry Salt, 21c; Dry Flint, 22c.

Cape and Alabama LIME held at 1 75 to $2 per barrel. Utica 1 75 to $2. Louisville Cement 2 50 to $3.

In SUGAR and MOLASSES there is no change and market fairly supplied, Fair to Choice Yellow Louisiana 13½ to 16c; Yellow and White Clarified 16c. Molasses 65 to 90c as to quality.

PRODUCE of all kinds sells slowly. Potatoes are weak, except Peachblows, which are in fair demand for eating at 2 00 to $2 25 per barrel. All seed varieties, including Neshannocks, Russets, Pink Eyes, etc., 1 50 to $2 per barrel. Sweet Potatoes 1 to $1 25. Onions 7 to 7 50 per barrel.

The POULTRY market is firm and poorly supplied. Turkeys 20 to $24. Geese 8 to $9. Ducks 6 50 to $7. Chickens 6 50 to $7.

The LIVE STOCK market is moderately active. The Bluff City stock-yard quotes as follows for beeves: 1st class, 6½@7½c; 2d class, 5@6c; 3d class, 3@4c; inferior, 2@3c; Milch Cows, $30@100 each; work Oxen, $75@125; Hogs, 9@10c, gross; Sheep, $3@7 per head. The market for cheap Horses and Mules has been very active the last few days, and prices range from $50@130.

The stock of SALT is good and prices are steady. Large Dairy, in seven bushel barrels, $4 50. Small Dairy, in 5 bushel barrels, $3 50. Large Common, in 7 bushel barrels, 3 30 to $3 50. Small Common, in 5 bushel barrels, 2 50 to $2 75. These are quotations in lots from first hands.

There is a fair jobbing trade doing in manufactured TOBACCOS and prices are steady.

The demand for low WHISKIES remains moderately active and prices weak. Highwines 90c per gallon.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The wharf was not a scene of much animation yesterday, and the arrivals and departures were few.

The Legal Tender got off for St. Louis.

The Silver Moon departed for Cincinnati with some people and 200 bales of cotton.

Capt. O. Hewett, clerk of the Norman, laid over at this port to wind up some affairs of his boat, and left for Evansville yesterday by rail.

Evidence was taken yesterday by Local Inspectors Washington and Good, in relation to the sinking of the G. A. Thompson in the Arkansas. The decision of the Inspectors will no doubt be given to-day.

The Richmond will be due from below to-night or in the morning.

The Mississippi leaves New Orleans to-night.

The Converse leaves for the scene of her labors on White river to-day.

The fine steamer Natoma came in yesterday on time, and gets away to-day for all points on White river. She connects with the Little Rock train and with the Fairy Queen for points on upper White and Black rivers. Capt. Wm. Ashford is master. J. W. Darby and John Smithers are her popular clerks.

The fine steamer Sam Hale, of which Capt. Walker is master, will get away on Saturday for Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati. She has elegant passenger accommodations.

The U. S. mail packet Ozark, with Harrison Blaisdell on the roof, gets away to-day for Pine Bluff and Little Rock. Besides making all way landings on the Arkansas, she connects with the Fort Smith packets closely. Ad Storm and Jim Saulsbury are her well known clerks.

The Virginia passed down yesterday. She got 405 bales cotton at this port.

The Liberty leaves on Saturday for all points on White river. She is the regular U. S. mail packet.

The latest velocipede has a spanker on the hind wheel which answers for a spur. The spanker is shaped like a paddle, and with every revolution of the wheel it inflicts some punishment to the rider, thereby giving an incentive to move forward. Ben Merrilees rode one on the levee yesterday.

The towboat Argosy passed up yesterday.

The elegant Belle St. Louis, Capt. Alex Ziegler, with J. W. Baskette and Ellis Harris in the office, leaves to-day at her usual hour, for Cairo and St. Louis. Sam Weaver, at the Memphis and Charleston ticket office, sells tickets over this line of packets for all points North and East.

The R. E. Lee, Capt. Cannon, will leave for New Orleans to-morrow at 5 p.m.

The unsurpassed passenger steamer Belle Lee, Capt. A. McGill, will pass down this morning for Vicksburg and New Orleans. No finer steamer floats than the beautiful Belle, and to travel upon her is a life long pleasure. Adolph Martin and Mr. Broughton are her capable, popular and efficient clerks.

Jack Chambers, the jolly and favorite old clerk of the Caldwell, having lost heavily in the oil business, is now at the Hot Springs, where he will open a "combined motion" velocipede school. Drs Creighton and Erwin, of this city, who go to the Springs to spend the summer, have enrolled their names for a course of lessons.

The splendid City of Alton is the regular Vicksburg and bends packet to-day. She needs no praise, being one of the best steamers afloat. Capt. J. B. Archer is master and J. M. White is chief clerk.

The Vicksburg Herald says: Capt. J. W. Smith informs us that he has perfected arrangements with Capt. Davis, of the Memphis and Napoleon packet Liberty, to carry the U. S. mail between Napoleon and Vicksburg. The Plain City will carry the mail once a week, leaving here on Thursdays with it. Her departures from this place hereafter will be on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

BUTTER.

THE ECONOMY BUTTER CO

Ask the attention of all interested in the reduction of the extravagant cost of Butter, to their practical and economical system of making pure prime Butter by aid of the

EXTRACT OF BUTTER PLANT.

A brief allusion to the origin of this important discovery may not prove uninteresting. Among the authenticated records of the renowned Captain Cook's voyage around the world, is found the statement, that while sojourning for a short time on the Brazilian Coast of South America, he observed the natives using, in the preparation of their food, a peculiar oil, which, upon examination, he found to possess the appearance, taste and flavor of Butter; upon further inquiry, however, he ascertained that it was simply a substance that the natives distilled in a crude and imperfect manner from a rich and luxuriant plant that grew spontaneously and abundantly in that warm tropical country. A few years ago an eminent French chemist, while on a professional visit to the tropics, made numerous experiments with this remarkable production of nature, and succeeded in extracting a concentrated essence of the plant. The formula for its preparation, and the Sole Right for the sale in this country are the exclusive property of this company, by whom it was purchased from the original discoverer. We claim for this remarkable, yet simple and perfectly harmless preparation

1st. That by its use a net gain of from 50 to 200 per cent. is made in the manufacture of Butter.

2d. That Butter, which from age or whatever cause, may be strong, rancid, streaked or coarse-grained, and comparatively useless for general use, by the aid of this Extract is restored to its original freshness and sweetness, fine grain and even color.

3d. By the use of this Extract, one pound of delicious, fresh Butter is actually made from one pint of milk.

4th. That a pure and excellent table Butter can be made, at a cost of from 15 to 20 cents per pound. The chief expense wherein being Butter, which is the essential base.

5th. That Butter manufactured by the aid of this Extract is equal in every respect to the best Butter made by the ordinary method.

6th. The Extract, after thorough analysis, by able chemists, is pronounced perfectly free from any deleterious substance, the ingredients being purely of a vegetable nature.

7th. In proof of the foregoing assertions, the factory of this company is making one ton of Butter per day, which meets with ready sale in the New York market, and is consumed from the tables of the first hotels, restaurants and private families in this city and elsewhere.

A sample package of the EXTRACT (sufficient to make fifty pounds of Butter), with full directions for use, will be sent to any address on the receipt of $1.

CAUTION.—As all articles of real merit are subject to spurious imitations, we would specially caution the public against counterfeits and worthless imitations, advertised as powders, compounds, etc., as the Extract of the Butter Plant is prepared and sold only by
